

Penetration Testing

Auburn University's McCrary Institute will assist a Local Government Entity (LGE) in defining the scope of the assessment (internal vs external) along with determining the appropriate firm to successfully execute the penetration test and deliver a formal report upon completion.